

Commencement Ceremonies at Javits Center North

At Javits, we understand the importance of choosing the right venue for commencement ceremonies. University officials can spend months, even years, seeking out a venue that provides just the right setting and tone for their event. Now they don't have to look far. Located strategically in midtown Manhattan, Javits Center North offers an 80,000 gross square foot column-free hall that comfortably seats up to 5,000 people. Special package rates have been created to simplify the booking procedure.
